++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Rather cloudy. Rain mainly in the west.

Today:
Mainly dry to east of Lough Neagh with some brighter spells. Otherwise, cloudy with showers, the showers perhaps merging into more persistent rain across Fermanagh and Tyrone. Winds will be light. Maximum temperature 17 deg C (63 deg F).

Tonight:
A few showery outbreaks of rain still possible in the west, but it will be mainly dry with the cloud thinning and breaking around the Irish Sea coast. Minimum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Tuesday:
Bright with occasional sunny spells. However, a scattering of showers developing during the day. Feeling pleasant in any sunshine with light winds. Maximum temperature 20 deg C (68 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
A mainly dry start on Wednesday and Thursday, but showers developing, these heavy and perhaps thundery at times. The showers lighter and more scattered on Friday with some sunny spells.
